REVIEWS

“Jason Thorpe Buchanan's Hunger, loosely based Knut Hamsun's novel, is a kind of training session in mental disintegration. Darcie Dennigan's libretto is elliptical... An ungodly opera needs ugly music, singers who produce primal sounds, an electric guitar that sounds scraped raw, a wailing orchestra effects, cuts the ear like a knife. Buchanan delivers.”

- Mark Swed, Los Angeles Times (HUNGER, The Industry's FIRST TAKE 2015 with wild Up)

“an unearthly collage of sounds... though conceptually direct, the resulting sounds were delightfully ambiguous: frantic joy could be as easily heard as extreme distemperment.”

- Daniel J. Kushner, New Music Box (Asymptotic Flux: First Study in Entropy, June in Buffalo)

“The plain speaking poetry of Katherine Thorpe glittered in this setting, all sharp colors and piano notes like drops of water... shimmering.”

- Adam Broner, Piedmont Post (Berlin Songs, 2nd Annual Melos Music Festival, San Francisco)

“Rowdy and Raucous” - Jacob Gotlib, ARTxFM (Double Concerto for Two Horns and Chamber Orchestra)

Jason Thorpe Buchanan is an American composer of operatic, orchestral, chamber, electroacoustic, and intermedia works that explore fragmentation, multiplicity, intelligibility, behavior, and the integration of live performance with technology. He is Artistic Director of the [Switch~ Ensemble], Department Chair/Lecturer in Composition, Theory, and Electroacoustic Music at the College of Music, Mahidol University in Thailand, and Visiting Lecturer in Composition and Interim Director of the Electronic Music Studios (UTEMS) at the Butler School of Music, University of Texas at Austin. His works have been described as “an unearthly collage of sounds”, “sharply-edged”, and “free jazz gone wrong—in a good way.”

Jason is the recipient of a 2010-11 Fulbright Fellowship at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater in Hamburg (DE) as a visiting scholar, a 2013 commission for Asymptotix Flux: Second Study in Entropy from the Mizzou International Composers Festival for Alarm Will Sound, the Howard Hanson Orchestral Prize (2014), a 2014 commission for Double Concerto from the International Horn Society written for the Eastman Musica Nova Ensemble, soloists Jeff Nelsen, Michael Walker, and conductor Brad Lubman, a 2014 commission from the Blue Water Chamber Orchestra as winner of Iron Composer (2014), two ASCAP Morton Gould Awards (2014 & 2015), an American-Scandinavian Foundation Grant (2015), a fellowship and commissions from Royaumont for soliloquios del viento (2016), written for the Talea Ensemble+EXAUDI Vocal Ensemble and ACTOR-NETWORK THEORY (2017) for the Académie Voix Nouvelles Ensemble, and commissions from Ensemble Nikel/Tz Lil Meudcan (Israel, 2014) and Iktus Percussion (NYC, 2013), a German/American Fulbright Commission (2011), winner of newEar Composer’s Competition (2013), and 2015 Artist-in-Residence at USF Verftet/City Council of Bergen, Norway.

As a nominee for the 2015 Gaudeamus Prize, three works were presented by Insomnio, New European Ensemble, and Slagwerk Den Haag at Gaudeamus Muziekweek (NL). His works walkside, lost and gimme shelter (2015), commissioned by Gaudeamus Muziekweek for Slagwerk Den Haag and by Eklekto Percussion Geneva, both explore the structural intersection of precise physical gestures, fragile sounds, and speech alongside live audio and video processing. Three speaking percussionists manipulate household objects, microphones, and speakers embedded in wooden boxes while cameras generate a reservoir of video files. These files are retrieved, re-organized, and composited against one another, creating temporal, aural, and visual dissonances between past and present actions. As 2018 Artist-In-Residence at the Embassy of Foreign Artists in Geneva, Switzerland, he developed a new, interactive processing environment for surface, tension (2018), responding directly to the discrete physical gestures of performers and governing the behavior of both signal processing and soundfile triggering through wearable technology, sensors, and motion tracking.

PANIC ARCHITECTURE (2017), commissioned by the Earle Brown Music Foundation for the Talea Ensemble and TIME SPANS Festival in NYC, evokes a participatory framework demanding compulsive interaction and attention. The relentless influx of email, messages, and notifications compel our constant engagement and response, functioning as both our tether to society and primary mode of interpersonal contact. Intermittent reinforcement entices users to obsessively check for new content. Digital panic occurs when multiple, simultaneous systems demand a user’s attention concurrently.

Scenes from his multimedia opera Hunger have received performances at Darmstadt (2014) with Ensemble Interface (DE), The Industry’s FIRST TAKE in L.A. (2015) with wild Up, and the MATA Interval Series in New York City (2015) with the [Switch~ Ensemble]. “Hunger is a kind of training session in mental disintegration... An ungodly opera needs ugly music, singers who produce primal sounds, an electric guitar that sounds scraped raw, a wailing orchestra effects, cuts the ear like a knife. Buchanan delivers.” – L.A. Times all-forgetting-is-retrieval (2019) for ensemble and augmented conductor was commissioned by the Thailand New Music and Arts Symposium, exploring the formation of human memory, retrieval, failure, and the emotional space of “lost” experiences—the inability to be truly present in a moment, or further commit to memory experiences that are simultaneously both formative and fleeting. The rapid loss of their fidelity is staggering, and this work attempt to confront that impermanence and decay.
